EXT. SEASIDE BOULEVARD ICE CREAM VAN - DAY

MEDIUM CLOSE UP, HIGH ANGLE

Seen from inside an ice-cream van, a BOY is moving to the front of the queue. It is a hot summer's day; he is wearing light clothes and there's a slight breeze.

REVERSE SHOT, LOW ANGLE

Boy gets handed his ice-cream (seller only visible to his shoulders) and puts on a happy face. As he is about to start eating it, a SEAGULL grabs the ice off the cone and flies off. All which is seen is a wild bunch of feathers. The approach is anticipated by Foley sounds of flapping wings. The child is left with the end of the waffle and looks horrified about his loss.

HIGH ANGLE - LONG SHOT, tracking upwards towards sky

Boy looks up to the air; shadows of seagulls move on the floor.

CLOSE UP

Boy gets out his catapult and aims, twitching his eye, turning as he does follow the seagull. He lets go and the focus changes as a loud splat hits something in the background. We see a GIRL having been hit with the remainder of the icecream, followed by a flake. Boy starts to grin as focus lays back onto him.

END.
